Search

PQC offers positions in a variety of disciplines across the US. You can view the responsibilities and summary of our open roles, including specific requirements and experience, and find just the right fit.

Apply

Once you have found the right position, you can apply online. Our Human Resources team will then review your resume and application and, if successful, they will contact you to arrange time for an initial interview.

Interview

Our team will review your application and discuss essential job functions more in detail, as well as answer any questions you have about the role. We also want to learn about your background and experience and assess your skills in relation to the position.

Selection

PQC will validate previous experience, verify education, conduct reference checks, and run background checks and possibly a credit check as part of the recruitment process. This process can take some time and we always remain in contact with you with updates along the way.

Offer

Once a final selection has been made, we will give you a call to let you know the good news and verify the terms of the offer. We will then send you the offer in writing explaining compensation, benefits and the terms of employment. We will also schedule your onboarding and first day.
